Dear Mr. Casey,

I would like to take this opportunity to invite your National Intelligence Officers for General Purpose Forces, Warning, and East Asia to an informal panel discussion from 1300 to 1430 on 2 May 1985 at Headquarters Marine Corps for the benefit of Major General Trundy who is slated to become the J-3 for Pacific Command.

We plan to have representatives from the Defense Intelligence Agency and the State Department on the panel. We look forward to a lively exchange of ideas and views which we feel will assist Major General Trundy in preparing for his new assignment.

I sincerely hope that representatives for the various offices will be able to attend. I have appointed Major Andy Budka (694-3628) as my point of contact to coordinate details for the panel discussion.

Very Respectfully,

L. W. SMITH

Brigadier General, U. S. Marine Corps
Director of Intelligence
